This is a petition for police protection. According to the petitioner his life as well as lives of his parents are threatened by 6th and 7th respondents. Already petitioner approached the criminal court for anticipatory bail apprehending that some crimes will be registered against him. We are not expressing any opinion regarding the disputes between petitioner and respondents 6 and 7 in a petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. However, police is directed to see that law and order is maintained and lives of none of the parties are endangered. With the above observations this writ petition is disposed of.
